

HH SAYYID RAWY AL SAID

Chairman | Muscat Hills International Development (MHID)

His Highness Sayyid Rawy Al Said is a distinguished member of Oman's Royal Family, serving as Chairman of Muscat Hills International Development (MHID). Under his leadership, MHID has emerged as one of Oman's most forward-thinking developers, shaping landmark destinations that blend luxury living, business excellence, and lifestyle innovation.

His Highness has been instrumental in the development of Muscat Hills Golf & Country Club, The Boulevard, and a portfolio of signature residential, commercial, and mixed-use towers—projects that collectively redefine integrated urban living in the Sultanate. With a clear vision centered on quality, design integrity, and long-term value, he has positioned Muscat Hills as a premier destination for golf, luxury residences, retail, hospitality, and corporate activity.

Guided by a commitment to global standards and local identity, His Highness actively cultivates strategic partnerships, including collaborations with leading regional and international entities, to deliver projects of enduring significance. His leadership continues to drive Muscat Hills forward as a holistic lifestyle and business hub, contributing meaningfully to Oman's evolving real estate landscape and economic future.
