

ILYAS MALIK

CEO | Muscat Hills International Development (MHID)

Ilyas Malik has been leading Muscat Hills International Development as CEO since 2010, overseeing the company's strategic vision, growth, and execution across Oman. Under his leadership, the company has delivered landmark projects that have redefined luxury and mixed-use development in the region.

With deep expertise in residential, commercial, and mixed-use developments, Ilyas is committed to creating high-quality, sustainable projects that enhance communities and generate lasting value. He emphasizes innovation, meticulous design, and long-term impact in every venture, ensuring that each development contributes meaningfully to Oman's urban landscape.

Beyond his professional achievements, Ilyas is deeply engaged in philanthropy. Through his Family Foundation, he supports initiatives that improve education and advance humanitarian causes across Oman, reinforcing his commitment to giving back to the communities in which the company operates.

With over a decade of leadership at Muscat Hills International Development, Ilyas Malik continues to shape the future of Oman's real estate sector, delivering projects that combine excellence, innovation, and social responsibility.